REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

➤ Vancouver School Board

Victoria Jung distributed a bookmark created by the VSB Anti-Racism and Equity department. She introduced an award-winning book titled “Little Girl” by H. Pham-Fraser, a VSB staff member, and shared personal experience about how the book resonated for her.

➤ CUPE 391

Gary Jarvis, Executive Steward and Eleonore Shaffer, Member-at-Large of CUPE 391 shared that members of the Executive Committee are attending the CUPE National Convention in Quebec and that issues being discussed include cost of living, wages, safety in the workplace, and systemic racism. He also reported that Johnathan Dyer was appointed Co-Chair of the CUPE National Indigenous Council. He noted that Kelsey Reimer is acting President, and that CUPE 391 is currently in bargaining.

➤ Friends of VPL

Friends of VPL were not present.

➤ VPL Foundation

Jenny Marsh, Executive Director of the VPL Foundation, provided a written report read by the Chief Librarian & CEO, sharing that the Foundation has published their annual report, available at vplf.ca, and that the fall campaign will roll out in early November starting with an appeal to monthly donors to increase their gift giving, and that will invite loyal supporters to become monthly sustainers.

➤ InterLINK

Trustee Melody Ma encouraged trustees to attend the InterLINK Digital Licensing & Copyright for Public Libraries workshop on Monday, October 30 being delivered by Chief Librarian & CEO de Castell and Director Cahill. The purpose of this workshop is to inform trustees about the current environment and challenges facing libraries, considering increased digital use and the impact of pricing on how we build our digital collections. The workshop will also talk about advocacy efforts to find solutions for Canadian libraries.

ADJOURN

Moved by Melody Ma and seconded by Emily Lapper

There being no further business, the Chair declared the meeting adjourned at 6:56 p.m.

Kevin Lowe, Chair
